Hewlett-Packard Company. i have a g50n also but i changed the dvd drives to sata and it is working fine with my dell pc. Now i want to know that can i use my dell pc with my g50n. If i do so, will it give any trouble? . Version : Hp DVDRAM GT50N Driver for Microsoft Windows XP SP 2 PC Size : 4.2 Mb Date Added : October 22, 2006 Added by : levidi. g50n driver. i am trying to install my dvdrw attached to my g50n, but it's not showing in xp. xp won't detect the dvdrw. Trying to install the driver from the hps website does not work. the.iso file seems to be corrupted, so the driver cannot be loaded. i can't seem to find any drivers on the net. tried all the drivers mentioned. none worked, or gave any errors..? all that comes up is the.inf file. is there any problem with my driver?

A: Connect the DVDROM to the PC. Open the Device Manager. Find the DVD drive. Right-click the DVD drive, then select Uninstall. After a brief delay, the DVD drive should disappear. The present invention relates to a process for producing optically active compounds by using a microorganism which produces an optically active compound which is useful for organic synthesis. Optically active 4-substituted-2-(substituted-phenyl)oxetanes (including those substituted on the phenyl ring by 1 or 2 other substituents at any position) are described in Japanese Laid-Open Patent Publication No. H2-176143. These compounds can be used in processes for producing medicinally useful compounds, particularly medicinally useful polysaccharide-degrading enzymes and polysaccharide-degrading enzyme-producing microorganisms. In this connection, a method for producing 2-phenyl-4-(1,3-benzodioxol-5-yl)-2-methyloxetane of formula (1) is known as being especially effective for the production of a polysaccharide-degrading enzyme: ## 3da54e8ca3
